Rules & Regulations

Classification

This is a Freestyle Southern Lion Dance Competition. The ultimate objective of the lion's quest must be one, or more, of the following:

- Choi Cheng/Cai Qing (採青/采青) - "Picking Greens"
- Choi Lingji/Cai Lingzhi (採靈芝/采灵芝) - "Picking Flower"
- Choi Jau Cheng/Cai Jiu Qing (採酒青/采酒青) - "Picking Wine"

NOTE: Not including and "picking" one of these three objects in the routine is considered a mistake and will result in a deduction in the team's final score.

Definition of Terms

- Cheng/Qing (青) = Greens
- Lingji/Lingzhi (靈芝/灵芝) = Flower of Immortality (Ganoderma Lucidum)
- Jau/Jiu (酒) = Wine

1. Participants

- 1.1 Only one School under the same name may enter the Lion Dance Competition. A maximum of 2 teams from each School may enter. (ie. School X can bring 2 teams; School X Team A, School X Team B, etc.)
- 1.2 Participants can only represent 1 School. Lion dancers and drummers may only dance or drum for one team per School. However, they are allowed to perform as a separate role on different teams.
- 1.3 The maximum of participants of a Lion Dance team is 10 people, of which there can be a team leader, coach, and up to 8 competitors. A minimum of 6 competitors are required to participate, consisting of at least 1 drum player, 1 gong player, 2 cymbal players, 1 head player, and 1 tail player. Remaining competitors are allowed to play any other instruments.
- 1.4 Teams are allowed to use up to 4 safeguards to ensure the safety of performers. Any improper touch to the props, cheng, or performers will result in deductions. Safeguards will not account for the team participant amount.
- 1.5 The use of lion leading characters are not allowed (ie. Happy Buddha, Monkey King, etc.).

2. General Regulations

- 2.1 All participating teams must submit their registration form, storyline, and sketch map of their prop arrangement May 11, 2018 11:59 PM EST.
- 2.2 Performers must obey all the rules, respect the competitors and the judges. Any influence and disturbance on the competitors and judges is prohibited.
- 2.3 Performers should salute to the judges and the audience when entering and leaving the competition

Judging Guidelines

Definition Of Terms

- Valid Scores are the scoring judges' scores selected to calculate the deserved score using the valid Score Selection rules.
- Deserved Score is calculated based on the average of the valid scores.
- Basic Score is a score assigned by the chief judge when the valid scores are in violation of the rules set out in Regulations for the Differences between valid Scores.
- Final Score is the result of applying the chief judge's deductions to the deserved score.

1. Judging

- 1.1 The panel of judges consists of 1 chief judge and 5, 7 or 9 scoring judges.
- 1.2 The chief judge has the right to call for a conference if there are any issues with the performance or discrepancies between judges.
- 1.3 All decisions made by the judges are final.

2. Scoring Order

- 2.1 Scoring judges will provide scores following each performance.
- 2.2 All the scoring judges will meet with the chief judge after each of the first 3 performances to ensure scoring consistency prior to providing scores. Additional conferences can be called on subsequent performances if the chief judge determines they are necessary.

3. Valid Score Selection

- 3.1 If there are 5 scoring judges, the highest and the lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.
- 3.2 If there are 7 scoring judges, the 2 highest and 2 lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.
- 3.3 If there are 9 scoring judges, the 2 highest and 2 lowest scores will be regarded as invalid.

4. Regulations For The Differences Between Valid Scores

- 4.1 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.2 when the deserved score is 9.5 points and above.
- 4.2 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.3 when the deserved score is in the 9 - 9.5 point range.
- 4.3 The difference between scores should not be more than 0.5 when the deserved score is below 9 points.

1st USDLDF National Dragon and Lion Dance Championships

Freestyle Lion Dance Rules & Regulations

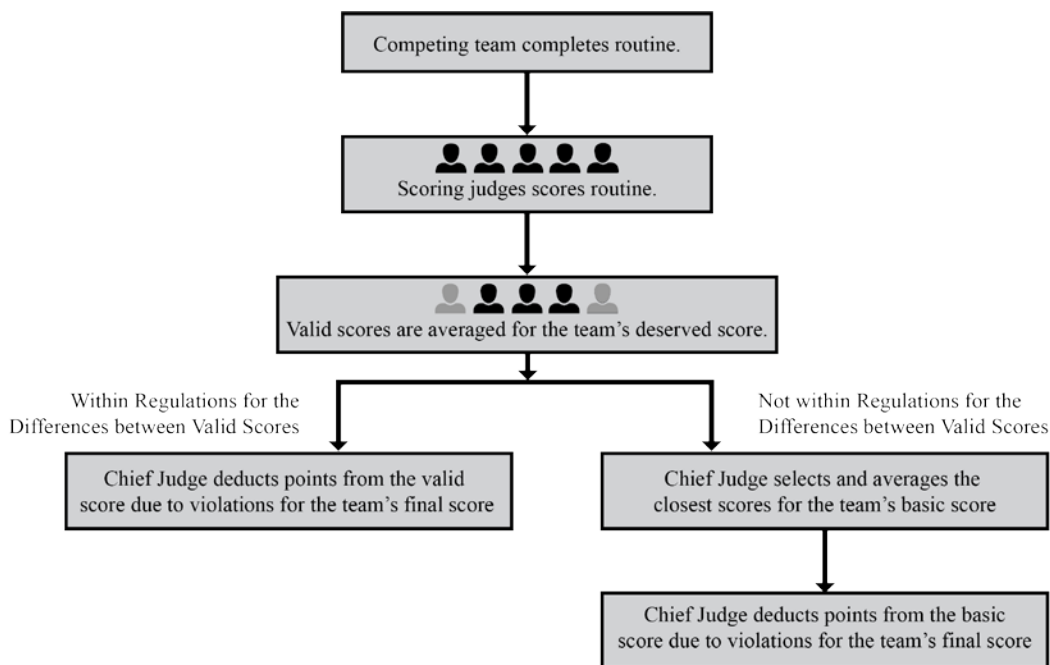

- 4.4 The chief judge selects a score to be used as the basic score when the difference between the valid scores of the scoring judges is in violation of the rules set out in Regulations for the Differences between valid scores. This basic score is then used with the two (2) or four (4) closest valid scores to calculate the team's deserved score.

5. Final Score

- 5.1 The team's final score is the result of applying the chief judge's deductions to the deserved score.
